NATURE SPARES

The Stricken Rose From Grief. What a fortunate provision of nature it is, that deprives the rose of mental suffering; for how polgnant would be its grief to discover, in the height of its blooming glory, that a canker fed at its heart, and that its beauty and fragrance were doomed forever. Nature always spares the suffering; she is a veritable store-house of pleasing rewards, for those who seek her ald. In the years gone by falling hair and grayness have cast a gloom over the lives of thousands of young women, but thanks to the investigations of scientists the true cause of hair destruction is now known to be a germ or parasite that burrows into absolutely destroys this germ, thus permitting the hair to grow as na-ture intended. Leave Montpeller for Barre on the hour and half hour until 10 p. m. visiting his members," is what I heard deacon say the other day about his exty-three-year-old pastor.

"I feel that I am capable to-day of more and better work all around as preacher and pastor -as sermonizer and organizer-than I was at the age of thirty-five," is what I heard a man over sixty say a few days ago in reply to the remark of a friend that he was When Barre Citizens Show the Certain preaching better every time."

Now, these cases can hardly be conidered exceptions. There is no reason why any well-preserved spirit should not do as good work at sixty or sixty-five as at any earlier period of his life. (The gers of diabetes or any kidney ills, when fact is, a man who is hale and alert at fifty has a better show for fifteen more years of activity than one has Read what a Barre citizen at forty.) The preacher of sixty has had twenty years more of study and of Vt., says: "I was subject for six years to attacks of kidney trouble, and I bewas led to believe my kidneys were out of order by too frequent passage of the kidney secretions. If I stooped it was only with the greatest difficulty that I could regain an erect position. I finally used Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at E. A. Drown's drug store, and their etfect was wonderful. "The church has great many inexperienced, undeveloped members, and yet the cry is for a young man," is what the chairman of a pulpit committee wrote a few days ago in erville, Mass., is passing a week at her asking me to recommend a man for his home here.

> And the more important the work, the more insistent in his call, The tendency is not only causing hardhip and heartache to many capable and cellent men by forcing them into idle ess, by thrusting them into work for which they are not fitted, and above all

t is depriving the church of much valnable service.—Religious Herald. "This insistent demand for young men for the pastorate is a practical confesion of lack of spirituality on the part of the churches that make it, except in very rare cases. A young preacher cannot have the spiritual experience and of Columbus, growth which are necessary qualifications for the highest service.'

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one wayto cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rombling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed. Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the micous surfaces.
